EDITOR ELLIOTT E. SHEPARD. Mr. Vanderbilt's Son-in-law BuyalCyrus W. Field's Newspaper.

Cyrus W. Field sold the Mail and Express newspaper yesterday to Elliott F. Shepard. who is one of the sons-in-law of William H. Vanderbilt and a well-known Sunday school work-The transfer was signed in the morning. and the afternoon edition announced the sale. The announcement consisted merely of a letto Mr. Shepard, and Mr. Shepard's reply. The new journalist says to the retiring journalist: It is with the greatest diffidence, and yet with a just appreciation of its possibilities, that I have taken on the ed that never, with my consent or knowledge, Be assured that never, with my consent or knowledge, shall it lower its standard. It is right in politics. It is free from personal acrimony. Its advance in all the standard qualities of a newspaper is largely owing to your liberal-Its editorial and business manage-able, fearless, and successful.

Trusting that you may live long and always read the Mail and Express, I have the bonor to be, most truly your obedient servant, ELLIOTT F. SHEFARD. bedient servant, To Cyars W. Finle, Esq.

Mr. Shepard asked Business Manager Francis B. Mitchell to see The Sun reporter, who called, Mr. Mitchell said that Mr. Shepard had bought the paper purely as an investment. Mr. Field wasn't awfully aprious to sell it or Mr. Shepard awfully anxious to buy it. He wouldn't say which one made the advances. No, Mr. Shepard didn't buy it in the interests of Dr. Derew, no matter what rumor said. Mr. Shepard wanted a good investment. The paper would remain just as it was politically. Mr. Shepard had always been and still was and would be a thorough going Republican. Mr. Shepard did not care to mention the price he paid for the paper. It was such a price he paid for the paper. It was such a price as to make the spaper a very good investment. Mr. Shepard did not propose to become the editor of the paper, but he would direct its policy. He did not propose to use the paper in the interests of any business or political undertaking. Mr. Edward M. Field said: "My father was willing to sell, and Mr. Shepard wanted to buy. My father has said for several years that he would sell the paper if any one offered a certain price. There have been many offers for the paper, but Mr. Shepard is the first who got up high enough. Father wasn't at all anxious to sell. It was Mr. Shepard who was very anxious to buy. I believe that Mr. Shepard wants the paper wholly as an investment for some of his superfluous cash." What was your father's limit in price?" Mr. Shepard awfully anxious to buy it. He his superfluous cash."
"What was your father's limit in price?"
asked the reporter.
"He held it at half a million dollars," said Mr.

leid. Chauncey M. Depew smilingly denied the satio accusation that he was interested in Chauncey M. Depow smillingly desired the gentle accusation that he was interested in the purchase.

"I had no idea that Mr. Shepardeven thought of such a thing." he said. "until he told me, day before yesterday, that he had about concluded the negotiations."

When the reporter said that rumor had it that Mr. Depow was to have the assistance of the newspaper in his Presidential boom, he laughed.

the newspaper in his Presidential boom, he laughed.

"In the first place I am not a candidate," he said. "If I was, I wouldn't be so foolish as to buy a newspaper. I would only have to explain one day what I said the day before. I'd rather trust my chance for fair play to the whole press than be the owner of a single newspaper. No, there is no truth in that whatever. From what I gathered from Mr. Shepard, I believe that he bought for an investment. He is a sound Republican and a man of strong social and political views. He is largely interested in religious and charitable projects. I presume the Mai and Express will reflect these opinions. It will not, I know, be run in any political or business interest."

"Will Mr. Shepard edit it himself?"

"Why not? He has been a frequent contributor to the newspapers. But I really don't

"Why not? He has been a frequent con-tributor to the newspapers. But I really don't thou what his plans are."

There were no editorial remarks in the Mail and Express yesterday upon the impropriety of running the stages on Fifth avenue on Sunday to get in the way of the carriages.

THE CHINESE AGAINST THE MAYOR. He bus Broken up Fan-tan, but Would be a Good Street Commissioner.

At a meeting of the discouraged fan-tan players on Mott street last evening, very in regard to New York as being situated upon free American soil. They say Mandarin Hewitt may be a very good Mayor and a great Confu-cian scholar, but his reign has been the death of the fan-tan business; and the fan-tan players want a change of Mayor. Resolutions were accordingly made that Mr. Tom Lee, the "Chinese Tammany Chief," should be waited upon and asked not to again use his influence in Mandarin Hewitt's behalf-especially not to Mandarin Hewitt's behalf—especially not to make him a Mayor or a Chief of Police. They have no objection to make him Street Cleaning Commissioner, as they need clean street crossings for their snow white paper soles.

The next important resolution made was regarding a method by which the fan-tan could be played and money won without being constantly interfered with by the police. The latter are onto "the copper cash, the white shirt buttons, the dominoes, the dice, and little red paper slips, the articles usually made use of in dealing and playing their games.

But black roasted watermelon seeds and perfumed joss sticks have never been used as paraphernalias for the fan-tan tables. They are accordingly accopted by the members of

"Well, that's easy enough to get out of," answered the Chairman. "You can say that it was money laid down by customers who came to buy joss sticks and watermelon seeds. If they don't believe it, let them take the seeds, that's all."

PREMIUM ON WOMAN SHOOTING. Judge Martine Won't Reward Peterson with the Hand of the Girl he Shot At.

Hannah Mannix, a pretty young woman with very black eyes and very red lips, is a paper box maker of 17 Monroe street. She was the complainant yesterday in the General Sessions against Louis Peterson, a printer, who Feb. 21. Miss Mannix told Assistant District Attorney Goff yesterday that she did not want to press the complaint. She looked down at the floor and blushed in the most charming manner as she confessed to Mr. Goff that she was willing to marry Peterson if Mr. Goff would let him off.

Then Miss Mannnix went to the witness's chair beside Judge Martine and blushed more violently while Mr. Goff actually told the Court out loud what she had whispered, and said:

I suggest, your Honor, that you may be willing to marry the young couple, and then to suspend judgment. Judge Martine-That is impossible, fear that it would put a premium on such the grid have of that disposition if they were rewarded by a marriage.

Mr. Goff—it was simply a suggestion. The counsel and the girl bresid say that she is willing to trust her future in the defendant's hands. manner as she confessed to Mr. Goff that she the girl herself eay that she is willing to trust her future in the defeudant's hands Judge Martine—if, at some future time after they were married, the man, in a quarrel with his wife were to shoot her, I would feet almost like an accomplice if I had married them. To avoid prejudice, I will, however, set down the case for hearing before one of my associates who has had a longer experience on the bench than I have had.

Judge Gildersleeve has married most of the ouples in court in similar cases, and Judge interaleeve will have Peterson before him on Another of Atlanta Harle's Victims. Walter T. Miller & Co., cotton brokers, of 123 Pearl street, suspended yesterday. They are victims of the decline in cotton and the re-fusal of customers to put up more margin. Atlanta Harle was one of their customers Harle sent the firm for margin uncertified Harle sent the firm for margin uncertified obecks, which were useless. In addition, Boston speculators, for whom the firm was carrying from 5.000 to 8.000 bales aplace, failed to reapond to the firm's call for margin.

The suspension adds another to the list of firms whose customers had banked on a six and a quarter million cotton crop, when the general estimates now are that the crop will be nearer 7.000.000 bales. Mr. Miller has been Treasurer of the Cotton Exchange from its organization. The members are to meet and amend the rules so that the Treasurer's books must be kept hereafter in the Exchange's safe. Mr. Miller once had a fortune of $500,000. He thinks he can pay in full.

An Obstinate Binckude. Like the ways of Providence, the origin of a street blockade is inscrutable. It springs up like a mushroom. There was a blockage of trucks and street cars yesterday at the june tion of Canal street and West Broadway which lasted from 8 o'clock until 1% P. M. It extend lasted from 8 o'clock until 1% P. M. It extended from Broadway, practically, to the North River. The northern and southern limits were Grand and Walker streets. Variek, Thompson, Hudsen, Wooster, Greene, and Mercer streets were included in the tie-un. The owners of trucks, when they heard of the blockade, harried to the seene and rushed into the mod. yelling to their drivers to push through in spite of everything. The two policemen who engineered the job of clearing the streets had their hands full. One truck loaded with stoves moved just one bleck between 8 A. M. and

March April May

Are the months to purify the blood, for at no other sen is the body so susceptible to benefit from medicine. The peculiar purifying and reviving qualities of Heodis Sarasparilla are just what are needed to expel disease and fortify the system against the debilitating effects of mild weather. Every year increases the popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is just what people need at Telemaque T, Timayenis Sues the Manhat-tan News Company for Damages. A book called "The Original Jacobs" appeared one forenoon a month or so ago on all the elevated railroad news stands. One hundred and fifty cepies were bought by passengers by 1 o'clock, and then messengers came along and ordered the book to be removed, and the supply was taken off the stands. The order for the removal of the book came from President Jenkins of the Manhattan News Company. The book was a satirical attack upon the Jews. It was written by Telemaque T. Timayenis, a Greek. It was reported that as soon as the book appeared on the maque T. Timayenis, a Greek. It was reported that as soon as the book appeared on the new stands a number of Hebrew pairons of the Manhattan Advertising Company had made a protest to President Jenkins, and declared that the satire was a vituperative and unjust attack on the Jewish race, and that they would withdraw their patronage from the advertising company if the sale of the book was continued at the elevated stations. Two hours afterward the book, it is asserted, was withdrawn.

Last Saturday Lawyer C. E. Lansing served upon President Jenkins paners in a suit in the City Court brought by Timayenis for $5.000 damages for the withdrawal of his book from the news stands. He sues as President of the Minerva Publishing Company of 10 West Twenty-third street, who got the book out. He alleges that he made a contract with the Manhattan News Company to expose the book for sale on the elevated stations for a period of six months, and he declares that the company willfully broke the contract. Lawyer George Bliss is counsel for the News Company. He has as yet put in no answer to the complaint.

President Jeskins says that the News Company reserves the right to do as it pleases about publications that come into its hands, so far as the withdrawall of them from its stands is concerned. When he got down town at noon on the day Timayenis's book was put on the stands because it was an objectionable work. He said that Timayenis's suit would amount stands because it was an objectionable work. He said that Timayenis's sult would amount to nothing.

BAD FOR THE CABLE GRIDIRON.

The Court of Appeals has sustained the decision of the General Term in the matter of the New York Cable Company. When the company was organized under the Rapid Transit set its plan covered some seventy-one miles of city streets through which they proposed to city streets through which they proposed to build roads. The articles of association provided, in the case of several of these lines, that if they were not completed within a specified time the franchise for such lines should be forfeited. It was noticeable that the franchise which were to be forfeited were the least important. The General Term held that the clause of forfeiture applied to the whole system if it applied at all, and that the company could not change the articles of association. The company carried the case to the Court of Appeals, which yesterday affirmed the order of the lower court, with costs, Appeals, which yesterday amrined the order of the lower court, with costs,

The only thing that remains for the Cable Company, Corporation Counsel Beekman said last night, is to begin back at the beginning again and induce the Legislature to change the law so that the company's charter will fall within its limits.

The jury in the suit of Benjamin F. Stevens against former Park Commissioner Daniel M. Somers for $50,000 for alleged libel in publish-ing a statement to the effect that Mr. Stevens ing a statement to the effect that Mr. Stevens had stolen the park water to supply the Coney Island hotels came into the Supreme Court in Brooklyn at 11 o'clock yesterday, after being out all night deliberating on a verdict. The foremen, when asked if a verdict had been reached, arose and said:

"We exonerate the defendant from wilfully libelling the plaintiff, and—"
Before the foreman could proceed further Juror William K. Phelps, who sat next to him, fell to the floor in a fit, and had to be removed from the court room. Justice Cullen adjourned the court until 2% o'clock, but Juror Phelps could not appear, and the other jurymen were discharged and the case left undecided. The verdict was intended to be for the defendant, but there must be another trial.

BABY'S SKIN AND SCALP Cleansed, Purified, and Beautified by Cutienra Remedies,

Last November my little boy, aged 8 years, fell again the stove while he was running, and out his head, and, right after that, he broke out all over his head, face, and right after that, he broke out all over his head, face, and left ear. I had a good dootor, Dr. —, to attend him, but he got worse, and the dootor could not cure him. His whole head, face, and left ear we e in a fearful state, and he suffered terribly. I caught the disease from him, and it spread all over my face and neck and even got into my even. Nobody thought we would ever get better. I felt sure we were disfigured for life. I head of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and procured a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a box of CUTICURA, and a cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and used them constantly day and night. After using two bottles of RESOLVENT, four boxes of CUTICURA, and four cakes of SOAP, we were perfectly cured without a scar. My boy's skin is now like satin. LILLIE RETING, 871 Grand st. Have been in the drug and medicine business twenty-five years. Have been selling your CUTICURA REME-DIES since they came West. They lead all others in their line. We could not write nor could you print all we have heard said in favor of the CUTICURA REME-DIES. One year ago the CUTICURA and SOAP cured curing a young gentleman of a sore leg, while the physicians are trying to have it amputated. It will save his leg, and perhaps his life. Too much cannot be said in favor of CUTICURA REMEDIER. COVINGTON, Ky. 8. B. SMITH & BRO.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE COMMON COUNCIL S CITY HALL, NEW YORK. March 15, 1888.

Fursuant to directions given me in the following resolution, which was adopted by the Common Council sarch 13, 1888, and approved by the Mayor March 14, 1888, viz. Fursuant to directions given me in the following resotution, which was adopted by the Common Council
March 13, 1884, and approved by the Mayor March 14, 1884, viz.
Resolved, That the 6th day of April, 1888, at 1 o'clock
F. M., and Room No. 16 in the City Hall (the chamber of the lioard of Aidermen), be and are hereby designated
of the New York, and Hard methers the application
of the New York, and Hard methers the application
of the New York, and Hard methers the application
of the New York and Hard methers the application of the Common Council to use electric power instead of hersee on its city line, as mentioned in the petition for such consent, will be first considered, and that public notice be given by the tierk of this Board, by publishing the same for fourteen days consecutively, excluding Sundays, in two newspapers published in this city, to be designated therefor by his Hener the Mayor, according to the provisions of chapter 252 of the Lawy of 1884, such advertising to be at the expense of the petitioner.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that at the time and place named in the resolution the following application of THE NEW YORK AND HARLEM RAILEGAD COM-PANY TO USE ELECTRICITY AS A NOTOR INSTEAD OF HORSES ON ITS CITY LINE will be considered, as required by section 12 of chapter 252 of the Laws of 1984, viz.:

or this New York and Balticas Mailboad ComPany To Use Electricity as a Motor instead of Horses on 178 city Line will be considered, as required by section 12 of chapter 252 of the Laws of 1894 viz.

The New York and Hariem Ralifond Company respectfully represent that by their charter. In 1804 (chapter 2835, they were given by the Lexislature the franchas of constructing and operating a ralifond in this city, with a double track, from Twenty-third street north to the Harlem River, and to transport, take and carry property and persons upon the same by the power and force of steam,
of animals or of any mechanical or other motive power, or of any combination of them which the company may chacse to employ; that by an amendment to this act in 1882 (chapter 185), they were authorized, upon consent of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonality of the city of New York, to extend their railway along the Fourth avenue to Fourteenth street, and through other streets in the city, upon obtaining from time to dime the consection of the time of the condition of the time of the consection of the condition of the condition of the time of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the condition of the condition of the consection of the city traversed by their tracks, where the population is scattered and the streets but little frequented, night give an opportunity, perhaps, for seme increased speed, and be more absolutely under the control of the driver and less likely to cause loss or injury wither by collision with other vehicles or by the carelessness of those who are constantly attempting to cross the streets directly in front of the cars. The company have personal manner has not been previously given by the Leyilaw of the consent, in writing, as provided by any have fo

being required upon the pavement to keep the horses from slipping.

The plan of car and system of operation proposed is not an untried system. It has been in satual operation for more than a year in transporting passengers in Brussels, where it has met with great success. It requires no excavation of the aireet, no removal of the pavement, but can be placed immediately upon the tracks now in use, without any inconvenience to the citizens whatever.

The company therefore requests that the Common Council will pass a resolution giving its consent to the use of electric power as a substitute for horses, as the motive power in propelling cars used upon the city line of the New York and Starlem Railroad Company, now operated within the limits of the city of New York.

A CHILD'S LIFE SAVED.

When six months old the left hand of our little grand-child began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more ged more impure it took and as his blood became more sed nors impure it took less time for them to break out. A sure came on the chin, beneath the under Hp. which was very oftensive. His head was one solid seah, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty two months old when I undertook the care of him. his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could wait a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIEs, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA and when he had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RE CULICURA and CUTICURA SOAP freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT his head was completely cured, and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged, and continued the use of the Remedies for a year and a half. One sore after another bealed, a bony matter forming in each one of these are deep ones just before healing, which would finally growloose and were taken out; then they would heat recose and were taken out; then they would heat rapidly, One of these ugit bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always reheatily child. The scars on his hands innst always re-main; his hands are airong, though we once feared he would never be able to use them. All that physician did for him did him ne good. All who saw the child be-

did for bim did him ne good. All who saw the child before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure. It the above facts are of any use to you, you are at liberty to use them.
